

THE VOICE OF THE PROPHET IS HEARD AT DUNBARTON.

I left Augusta on Saturday evening for Dunbarton to deliver a sermon on Sunday at Canaan Fair C. M. E. Church. Bro. Joseph Lewis met me at the station with his car and carried me to his home and I spent two pleasant nights with his family. The people of this community have been anxious to hear me for a long time, but this was the first time that I was able to preach for them. Rev. Isles is the pastor of this splendid congregation. He is a Christian man and treated the prophet well. This is his second year, and recently he had a rally that amounted to over $1,000. He is a good preacher and one of the best songsters in the State. He teaches school in Saluda county. The pastor preached a good sermon in the morning to the society band. Sunday evening it rained a little and cleared off at night. I had one of the largest crowds of my life. After I finished preaching I called for mourners and several grown men came forward to be prayed for. The pastor and several others said that it looked more like an August meeting than a winter service. I also delivered three prophetic messages to the people of this section that was well received. Rev. S. W. Cromer, ex-pastor of the church, attended both services and subscribed for the Indicator. After hearing the prophet he invited him to preach at his church in Allendale on the third Sunday in February. Rev. Cherry, a good Baptist pastor, heard the sermon. A nice collection was raised. This is another section of South Carolina where it is a common thing for colored people to own two and three hundred acres of land. Dea. Rouse, who made one of the best crops in life last year and will make another one this year, worked hard with Bro. Lewis to secure my services. A great many farmers are worried because it looks like the merchants will not let them have any guano. Don't be discouraged, a way will be opened for you. Please don't leave the farm. On my way home a committee met me at the station and asked me to preach for them at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Ellenton. I am receiving many letters about the boll weevil. I first read the letters and then put them in a safe until March then my secretary will answer all of them that have a stamp enclosed, and the others will be thrown into the scrap basket. Before adjournment I called for subscribers for the Indicator. The result was: Mrs. R. H. Isles, $1.50, Dunbarton (2); Rev. S. W. Cromer, 90c, Bartin, S. C., R. 1, Box 8 (3); W. M. Lewis, 90c, Dunbarton R. 1, Box 80 (4); Joseph Lewis, 90c, Dunbarton, R. 1, Box 67 (5); Lawson Bush, 90c, Dunbarton, R. 1. Total, $5.10. Rev. Arthur Ross.

RACE CONFERENCE GET-TOGETHER MEETING WAS GREAT SUCCESS.

The first get-together meeting of the coming Race Conference was held last Sunday afternoon at Sydney Park Church with Chairman I. S. Leevy presiding. The principal speakers were: Mr. Jos. Norwood, ex-president of The Union National Bank, and R. Hatwood, pastor of Jones Chapel M. E. Z. Church. Both speakers made very helpful talks.

Miss Mary A. Lynch also made a short and inspiring talk in interest of her work. A successful Race Conference is a certainty.
